YESTERDAY afternoon the Colony witnessed something nearly akin to the excitement of a popular election. At the meeting of the Justices held at the City Hall, which was largely attended, no less than three candidates for the honour of a seat at the Legislative Council were proposed -- namely, Mesers. A. P. MacEwen, E. R. Belilios, the Orangemen continue throughout the country. and F. D. Sassoon. A close contest followed, the result of which was the election of the latter candidate by a majority of three over Mr. Belilios and four over Mr. Mac-Ewn. We must congratulate Mr. Sassoon on his good fortune, but we must confess to a little surprise at the decision of the beach of justices. Against Mr. Sassoon personally not one word can be said, for he is, and most deservedly, universally liked and respected, but he has neither the forensic abilities of the other competitors nor the exstituents in Council. That he will no silent members we sincerely hope, for in the for and prove of weight and value. In any case we may be confident that the new member will support the popular views with his vote and influence, and we cordially wish him all success in the exercise of his legislative functions.

After this the Black Flags rushed towards the French gunboats which were anothered near the banks of the Red River, and captured oleven of them. Seven Annamite junks that had conveyed the French troops to Sontal were also captured. The reason the gunbouts were captured so easily was because all the fighting portion of the crew had joined the main army and only a few noncombatants were left on board. We have received from the local agent, a copy of the P. & O. time table for 1884 of the Hongkong and Japan line.

Up to latest advices to hand the French frigate Triomphante was at Amoy, the British gunbest Forhound at Foodhow, and the British gunboat Esk at Swatow.

By the arrival of the steamer Namoa we learn that the steamer Albay is still lying in the same position with her bow seaward. Captain Goddard and his officers are actively engaged in superintending the salvage operations.

We learn from Messrs, Thos. Watson & Co.'s Tea Report, dated Calcutta, 4th December, that the export of ten from Calcutta to Great Britain from the 1st January to the 30th November. 1883, was 52,657,3771bs, as compared with 48.215.373lbs. in the same period of 1882, and 40.781,190lbs. in the corresponding eleven menths of 1881.

The attack on a house at Yaumati on Tuesday night led to even more serious results than we have yet stated. It will be remembered that an inquest has already been opened on the body of one of the marauders who died from the effects of a guashot wound said to have been given by a constable. Another man has now been found to have been wounded by the shots sent after the retreating thieves by the police. The reason he was not found before seems ! to that he crept away into the bushes after re- in ing his wound and remained there for over two days, and when he was at length found he was pitiable state. The bullet struck the lower part of his face, and smashed his jaw. He was removed to the Civil Hospital as quickly as possible, where he is now being attended to. Yester day morning the Coroner and jury in the case Messrs. A. Shepherd, J. H. Smith, and A. G. Morris, visited the scene of the attack, and inspected it, and they also viewed the spot where a Chinaman was crushed by the fall of a boulder while cutting earth on the hillside, the inquest in which case is also adjourned.
